The children in the play are all members of a drama class conducted as part of the Carmel Unified School District summer recreation program. Gail Dowling is directing the production. Nancy Trail is her assistant.

Tickets (50 cents for adults, 25 cents for children) may be obtained from cast members or at the box office before both performances at 8:30 p.m.

At left, Leslye Weinfield, who plays the title role in "Rumpelstiltskin," shows Alison Work the bale of hay he is supposed to spin into gold.

Planners Approve Joint Report On 'All-Day Parker'

Last night the Carmel Planning Commission adopted a report approving recommendations in a joint council-commission re-

New Bank For Carmel

The first new independent bank to be established in Carmel in 41 years has been approved in Washington, D.C., by James J. Saxon, Comptroller of the Currency. Mr. Saxon has authorized the Security National Bank of Monterey County, the Monterey Peninsula's only remaining home-owned bank, to establish a branch in downtown Carmel in the post office area.

Mr. Saxon said that Carmel's only other home-owned independent bank, the Bank of Carmel, was established in 1923 by T. A. Work. The bank was sold, however, to Crocker-Citizens in 1959, leaving Carmel without a locally owned bank.

Security National was founded in Pacific Grove in 1889. The 75-year-old banking institution was established by the late E. Cooke

Smith. William A. Burkett of Pebble Beach acquired controlling interest in the bank from the Smith estate in 1961 and has since established a trust department and three other branch offices on the Peninsula. Its main office is to be moved from Pacific Grove to Monterey when its new Monterey headquarters are (Continued on Page Six)

Council Sets City Tax Rate Up 11.5 Cents

Yesterday afternoon, the city council ended many hours of study devoted to reducing the municipal budget and set the city property tax rate for the coming year at $1.06 per $100 assessed valuation.

This rate is 11½ cents higher than last year. However, by eliminating requested expenditures amounting to $31,223, the council reduced the total amount necessary to run the city next year to $1,263,122, instead of the sum projected two weeks ago which would have required a tax increase of 36½ cents.

The $1.06 tax will be allocated as follows: general fund, 42 and three-tenths cents; capital outlay, 12 and one-tenth cents; retirement fund, 14 and eight-tenths cents; Harrison Memorial Library, 36 and nine-tenths cents.

Councilman Gunnar Norberg, who had striven constantly to further reduce expenditures during budget sessions, was absent yesterday when the rest of the council approved the 1964-65 tax.

Mayor Herbert Blanks observed, following the setting of the tax rate, that the city will be on a sound financial basis this year. Taxpayers will get good service and not pay for unnecessary luxuries, he added.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey stated that City Clerk-Comptroller Hugh Bayless and City Auditor Arthur Plaxton presented the 1964-65 budget in such a way that every member of the city council approached budget study with a more thorough knowledge of what is going on in the city from the fiscal standpoint than they ever had before. He praised the city's administrative staff for the work which made this knowledge available to the council.

City Gets Money Tomorrow To Pay For Sunset School

City Clerk Hugh Bayless will come home from San Francisco tomorrow with a check for $575,000 made out to the city. In January, this money will be paid to the Carmel Unified School District and the city will take possession of the Sunset School buildings and site.

Tomorrow morning, Mr. Bayless will receive from the printer, sign and deliver to the Bank of America the bonds approved by the voters in April to raise the money for the Sunset purchase. Following this he will be given the check.

The $575,000, until January, will be deposited in the time deposit banking account of the city and earn interest until it is paid to the school district.

After the city takes possession of the school in January, the school district will pay Carmel $2,000 a month rent for Sunset.

port for the framing of an ordinance to get "all-day business parkers" off the residence zone streets.

On August 26, the commission will decide whether or not to add recommendations of their own for the city council to consider. The latter body will study the report on September 30.

The report recommends that all owners of new buildings in the commercial area be required to provide off-street parking, for the proprietor and employees of any business occupying the new premises.

This parking could be on the site of the building, if feasible, otherwise be situated elsewhere, possibly in parking lots on the periphery of the business zone in the residence district.

Last night commissioners studied the "all-day parker" report.

County Residents Not Library Free-Loaders, Mrs. Thornburg Explains

by Marjory Lloyd

In the past two weeks, during budget sessions, Councilman Gunnar Norberg repeatedly objected to the use of the Harrison Memorial Library by residents of the "urbanized, unincorporated areas" surrounding Carmel.

He contended that these residents of the county are a burden to Carmel taxpayers who pay a five-cent annual county library tax besides supporting their own library.

Benefits from the county library, he inferred, were not equal to the tax paid by Carmel property owners. On the other hand, residents of the unincorporated areas and students of the Carmel Unified School District benefitted greatly from being allowed to use Carmel's library without contributing to its support.

This week, Mrs. Ruth Galvin Thornburg, head Carmel librarian, presented to all members of the council a report showing just (Continued on Page Thirteen)

I may not plant a lawn on rock or desert ground, nor yet contain a fawn with futile fence around. A tree must have its share of sky, and soil and stream; and wilding creatures such as I a daring dream.

Too soon we turn away from yearning youth, to capture in a day some half-learned truth. Too eagerly we seek to play the patriarch, or, daft deluded, haste the day we "make our mark."

Suffice it for this now the daily task; no need to wonder why, or even ask a new tomorrow, since this one was yesterday's already here, and much begun in many ways.

We eat our meals each one before the rest; no race is ever run before the test. The pot must heat before it boils, this has been said; why hasten then to count the spoils of years ahead?

We know, since we were born we'd someday die, so why delude each morn with some new lie? My one concern, and mark it well and give it ear, is not create a present hell, and live it here.

Registrations For New Students Begins In Carmel School District On Aug. 31, School Starts Sept. 10

There are exactly four more weeks from today for students in the Carmel Unified School District to enjoy carefree vacation days.

School opens on September 10.

From then on until June 17, 1965, when the coming school year ends, boys and girls from Pebble Beach to Big Sur, and up the Carmel Valley beyond Jamesburg, will be attending classes in the district's 10 facilities ranging from nursery school through senior high school.

New students planning to enter any of the elementary schools should be registered at the school nearest their homes starting August 31 and ending September 4. The various elementary school offices will be open from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. each day that week for this purpose.

Parents new to Upper Carmel Valley should register kindergarten through sixth grade children at Tularcitos School.

New residents of Lower Carmel Valley should register their K-6 school-age children at Carmelo School.

Children of new residents in Carmel Woods, kindergarten through fourth grade age, should be registered at Woods School.

River School is the elementary facility where newcomers to Pebble Beach, Carmel Meadows, Carmel Knolls, Rancho Rio Vista, Carmel Highlands, the southern part of Carmel and areas near the Mission should register kindergarten through fourth grade pupils.

All new fifth and sixth graders in Pebble Beach, the Highlands and the Carmel area should register at Sunset School.

Verification of birth will be necessary in order to register kindergarteners. A report card or transfer is desirable when registering students in the other elementary grades. Parents need not bring students with them when registering.

September 1 is the date to begin registering new students in the area at Carmel Junior High School. Counselors will be available to assist students and parents from 9 a.m. until noon, also from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. Monday through Friday of that week. The junior high school day, this year, will begin promptly at 8 a.m. and end at 3 p.m.

New students may register at Carmel High School on August 24 from 9 a.m. until noon, also from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. From August 25 through 28 high school registration for students new to the area will be confined to morning hours only.

On September 8, all senior high school students new to the district will be tested in Carmel High School cafeteria starting at 10 a.m. They will be expected to attend an orientation meeting at 2 p.m. the same day.

On September 10, at 8 a.m., a general assembly for all students will be held at the high school.

Regatta, Horse Show Weekend Events At Pebble Beach

Boats and horses will be spotlighted at Pebble Beach this weekend.

Boys and girls will compete in the Stillwater Yacht Club Junior El Toro Championship Regatta on Saturday and Sunday. This event is open to entrants who are registered in the summer El Toro program and had not reached their fifteenth birthday on last January 1.

There will be two classes; one for experienced skippers, and one for those with less sailing experience. Trophies will be awarded for the first five places in each division, in addition to the Grace Veeder Perpetual Trophy, according to John Gratiot, Jr., race committee chairman.

Competitors will be Wendy Clark, Dick Clark, Louise von Hasseln, Ken, Mark, David and Phillip Hughes, Ellen Fielding, Sheila Hatley, Pierre and Michel d'Avenas, Brad Stewart, Pam

The nineteenth annual Pebble Beach Summer Horse Show started today and continues through Sunday.

Chairman for this event is Richard Collins. Hunters, ponies and equitation will be judged by Colonel Donald D. W. Thackeray of Potomac, Maryland. Hermann Friedlander of Soquel will judge dressage and equitation. James M. R. Glaser of Pebble Beach will judge jumpers.

Pebble Beach Stables entries will include: Ronald Stolic, Debbie and Penny Smith, Alex Pratt, Tom Bishop, Leslie Woods, Bill Bradley, Michael Collins, Mrs. W. L. Hudson, Pamela Hatley, Donna Woods, Julie, Mike and Joan Costello, Denny Simard, Susan Littlefield, Larry Dick and Tena Dunaway.

Rancho Point Lobos has entered Susie Morris, Tracy Cutchett, Karen Brooker, Mary Rice, Betsy, Sally, Johann and Sarah Hudson, Cindy Kodani, Betsy Risser, Gale Henderson, and Toni Henderson.

Building Inspector Plans To Enforce City's Zoning Laws

During the coming year, violations of the city's building code and zoning ordinance gradually will be eliminated, according to plans made by Building Inspector Richard Thomas.

The city council, in the 1964-65 budget, has allocated the sum of $1,300 to aid him in investigating and documenting information to be presented to the city attorney, also approved a polaroid camera, cost $200, to enable him to record, graphically, violations of the building and zoning laws.

With the help of accumulated data and photographs, also the aid of the city attorney, Mr. Thomas hopes to persuade persons breaking the law in both the residence and business districts to conform to the city's laws. If they don't he is prepared to ask the city attorney and the council to take legal action.

Mr. Thomas cited as one violation in the residence zone the conversion of one-family homes into dwellings for two families.

"If you are to preserve the residence district as such, I feel strongly we must take action," he told the council.

Investigation of violations in both the commercial and residence zones is long overdue, Councilman James Buffington emphasized.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey stated that there is a pressing need for proper enforcement of the zoning laws and elimination of the pattern of violations evident in the residence zone.

"These are difficult to document and present in court, yet we are all aware they exist," he said.

He pointed out that Mr. Thomas's proposed program would make violators "realize the city means business and to protect the residence zone property owners."

Some documentation of violations has been made over a period of years, he continued, and

Good Old Carmel High Days Recalled By Class Of 1949

Celebrating the fifteenth anniversary of their graduation from Carmel High School, also their second reunion, the class of 1949 had a record attendance Saturday evening in the Gold Room at the Mark Thomas Inn when 24 members of the "famous" class met for fun, reminiscence, and reports on the present.

Attending the dinner were Howard De Amaral from Barrington, Illinois; Leslie Bracisco, Salinas; Pat (Canoles) Zantetta; "Dici" (Douglas) Harber and Art Harber, Marina; Bob Burgess, Los Altos; Nancy (McGill) Thompson, El Granada; Bill Marquardt, San Jose; Paul Artellan, Carmel; Marilyn (Draper) Asper, Torrance; Elton

Clark, Los Angeles; Laurel (Hildebrand) Lombardi, Daly City; Georgeann (Bell) Rivella, San Diego; Mitch Steenhoudt, Stockton; Jackie (Briggs) Chalkley, Carmel; Joyce (Bannerman) Seifert and Ed Seifert, Salinas; Benita (Updike) Conlan, Carmel Valley; and Ardith (Morrisseau) Briggs.

Arriving after dinner were Jennifer (Lloyd) Baylis; Kathie (von Meier) McKenney, both '49ers, also graduates of other years Francis P. ("Skip") Lloyd, Dr. Basil Allaire and Luis Wolter.

Telegrams and letters from those class members who "just couldn't make it" came from Jim Kendall, Louise (Daniels) Madison, Doris (May) Smythe, Dick Sumner, Dick Taplin, Helen (Prosser) Weston and Ann (Rigdon) Bell. Also, Louise (Harber) Townley, Violet (Figueroa) Hernandez, Ted Weston, Gunnar Reimers, Zoe (Beyma) Kendall, Janet (Richey) MacChesney, Harry Watson and Garry Shaw.

The party went on past midnight with repeated toasts to Howard De Amaral who had journeyed for the second time from Illinois to celebrate the good old days at Carmel High.

The next reunion will be in 1969 and, it is planned, will take place in the autumn so that attendance at a CHS football game may be included in the "high-jinks."

The committee which arranged the reunion last week consisted of Paul Artellan, Jackie Chalkley, Benita Conlan and Joyce Seifert. "Dici" Harber decorated the tables.

Returns From Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Kirkland of Pebble Beach are looking forward to the return of their daughter Joan, from Europe on Sunday. She graduated from Miss Burke's School in San Francisco in June and will enter Stanford next month. She was one of 12 girls touring Europe for the past two-and-a-half months under the chaperonage of Mrs. Richard Von Whorton. The group reached New York City early this week where Joan stayed for a few days to visit friends. Her mother tells us that Joan telephoned from New York yesterday to say that she would fly direct to Monterey, so that she "wouldn't lose any time getting back to Pebble Beach, home and pals."

Joan's younger sister, Cathy, will attend Lone Mountain (San Francisco College for Women) this Fall and is looking forward to next summer when she will take the same European trip enjoyed by Joan this year.

McGeoghegan Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Livingston, Jr., of San Francisco, whose daughter is attending summer classes at the Santa Catalina School for Girls, are houseguests of the John T. McGeoghegans of Upper Trail. A recent visitor at the McGeoghegan home was Mrs. McGeoghegan's sister, Mrs. Michael Pickstone of Capetown, South Africa. Mrs. Pickstone left Carmel yesterday for a visit in London enroute home.

Teachers' Luncheon

California Retired Teachers' Association will have its bi-monthly luncheon at Italian Villa, Salinas, on Wednesday at 12:15 p.m. Ted Odell will show pictures of the South Sea Islands.

All retired teachers are invited to attend. Non-members may make reservations by writing Mrs. Anna Walker, 454 South Main Street, Salinas, or telephoning her at 424-6566 by Monday.

Altrusa Club Tea

The second annual tea of the Monterey Peninsula Altrusa Club will be held on Sunday afternoon from 2-4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Norma Frances Cohn at 861 Ocean View Boulevard, Pacific Grove. A feature of the afternoon will be a silent auction for which members are contributing many handcrafted originals, useful and ornamental. Outstanding will be a hand hooked rug, created by Mrs. Cohn, to be presented as a door prize.

Mrs. Lois LaMar, Altrusa president, Mrs. Paul McGaughey and Miss Julia Minor will pour tea. All residents of the Peninsula and their visiting friends are invited to attend.

The Monterey Peninsula Altrusa, affiliated with Altrusa International, has for its objective, assistance to young business and professional women as well as the rehabilitation of older women who wish to return to business or professional positions after an absence of months or years.

Pebble Beach News

Mrs. William Bull Pringle is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Work at their home in Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jewett Garland of Pasadena, who are occupying their Pebble Beach home this summer, have the Charles D. Jennisens of Pasadena as their houseguests; and the Gordon F. Cronkhites of Pasadena have been visiting Mrs. Franklin Baldwin in Pebble Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Tuttle of Los Angeles have been guests of the Justin Darts at their new home in Pebble Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Leet W. Bissell of Carmel entertained with a cocktail party honoring General and Mrs. William R. Gruber and Admiral and Mrs. Harvey E. Overesch, who leave soon for Europe.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Carol McKenney have returned to their Pebble Beach home following a year's stay in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Talbot, Jr., of Pebble Beach entertained Saturday for the Bob Crosbys who are currently making their home on the Monterey Peninsula.

Miss Leslie Woods, daughter of the Roy Woods of Pebble Beach, has just returned from a month in Portland, Oregon, where she has been competing in a series of horse shows both there and in Washington State.

Mrs. Cameron B. Hall of Beverly Hills (the former Phyllis Havenstrite) is currently visiting the Richard D. Collins in Pebble Beach. She is on the Monterey Peninsula to pick up her daughter, Cameron, who has been a counselor at the Douglas Camps in the Carmel Valley this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Darius N. Keaton of Pebble Beach will entertain with a cocktail party Saturday to "ward" their new home.

L'Alliance Francaise Bazaar

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the home of L'Alliance Francaise's president, Mrs. Jerome Carlson, last details of this organization's forthcoming scholarship bazaar were finalized as follows. The bazaar is to be held in the patio of Ring's Restaurant, August 22, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. General chairman will be Mrs. Claude Courtol of Pebble Beach. Assisting her as co-chairman will be Mrs. James L. Hathaway. Others who will handle special tables include Mrs. Sorin Issvoran, Mrs. Francisco Ferro, Mrs. John Dowdakin, Mrs. Germaine Olivie, Mrs. E.S.L. Goodwin, Mrs. Rudolph Alt, Miss Clementine Herlax, Miss Adrienne Dufour and Miss Ginger Laky.

Persons who wish to donate

"That important piece of paper" a marriage certificate, was handed by the Reverend David Hill, in his study at All Saints' Episcopal Church, to a popular Carmel couple, just after they had exchanged their vows before him at the altar. The bride, Mary Weisiger, is the daughter of Mrs. Violet Weisiger. The groom, John Elber, is the son of Mrs. Sara Reamer and grandson of Mrs. G. W. Reamer, one of Carmel's pioneer residents. With them are the maid of honor, Miss Cathryn ("Dinny") Craviotto, and the groom's brother, Daniel, who acted as best man.

items for the bazaar may telephone Mrs. Carlson (624-3195), or Mrs. Hathaway (372-1138), or general chairman Mrs. Courtol (624-8675), who will tell them where to leave their donations. Articles to be sold include art objects, bric a bric, jewelry and other fancy items.

Family Excitement

Not only the bride-to-be, JoAnn, daughter of Commander Arthur J. Kinion (USN) and Mrs. Kinion, is in a flurry of plans for her wedding, but her sisters and brothers who will act as her attendants are adding to the happy excitement.

Judith will be her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be another sister, Jeri Kinion, and Kathy McFarland of San Francisco. JoAnn's young sister, Jan, will be junior bridesmaid, and her youngest sister, Jaye, will be flower girl.

Her small brother, Timothy, will be ring-bearer. The two toddlers, Todd and Terence will not, their mother says, attend the bride during the ceremony, but they are already planning to eat plenty of the wedding cake.

JoAnn will marry Theodore Davis of Powder Springs, Georgia, on August 22. The ceremony will be held in the Roman Catholic Chapel of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, with a reception following in the officers' club at the Presidio.

Full House At Nietos

A family house party, with the tiniest ones, three, four and five years old setting a lively tempo, brought the August Nietos and their daughters, plus husbands and grandchildren, together in the Nieto home, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael (Katherine Nieto) Philbin of San Jose brought their young sons, Kevin and John. Mr. and Mrs. William J. (Margaret Nieto) McCormack with their daughter, Elizabeth, arrived on Saturday and will continue their visit through this week. Their home is in Lompoc.

Grandsons Visit Reids

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence (Karen Reid) Glaser are in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for a month while Mr. Glaser, a design engineer for the Fairchild Corporation, consults with engineers in the home plant. Young Peter Glaser, their son, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reid in Carmel. So that Peter wouldn't be lonesome, Mrs. C. A. Stokeld (Marilyn Reid) has come down from San Francisco, bringing her little son, Tony. Mrs. Reid reports that there is never a dull moment!

Anne And Ted Arrive

Anne and Ted Roberts of Spokane, Washington, are in Carmel again for a summer visit. They are the guests of Anne's mother, Mrs. Charles Sumner Greene. The Roberts' arrival is cause for delight each year to their Carmel friends, many of whom date back to Anne's childhood here, also when she, a pianist, played in the first Bach Festivals and gave recitals in the studio at her home designed by her late father, a famed American architect.

Pop's Eventful Life

Carmel's "unsinkable" Pop (Cecil) Smith was an honor guest at radio station KNBR's spectacular party in celebration of Evangeline Baker's fifth anniversary as the station's commentator. The dinner was held on Wednesday evening in the grand ballroom of San Francisco's Hilton Hotel and Pop received thunderous applause as he was introduced by Miss Baker to the 2,000 guests.

Also present, and enjoying the evening of star entertainment, was former Carmel resident, Miss Jane Rowan, who is now living in Menlo Park.

Pop's social calendar has really been crowded! His friends of many years, Dr. Paul Foster, the renowned specialist in dermatology, and Mrs. Foster, in Carmel for the weekend from Los Angeles, took Pop off for a jaunt around the Peninsula, climaxed with dinner on the wharf.

Early in September Pop will have a very special guest, his niece, Miss Kathleen McLean, who is being brought from London by Pop's daughter and son-in-law, Louella and Jimmy Weir. It will be Miss McLean's first visit to the United States and to be sure that she is treated with traditional Carmel friendliness Pop has made reservations for his niece at the James Buffingtons' hostelry where, says Pop, "Carmel hospitality abounds!"

In Army-Air Force Exercise

Last Friday a joint Army-Air Force exercise, Indian River II, at Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, ended. Army Captain Robert T. Oliver, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Oliver of Pebble Beach, was one of the members of the 1st Infantry Division taking part in the event. He is platoon commander of the division's 1st Aviation Battalion regularly stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Mrs. Von Meier Home

Mrs. Julian von Meier has returned from a month's holiday. The young Carroll McKennys III, with their four children, were here for the weekend, dividing their time between Kathy's mother (Mrs. von Meier) and Carroll's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. Carroll McKenney of Pebble Beach.

LIZ AND BURTON DUE HERE

Soberanes Point, on Highway One, is the scene of much activity. Construction crews from M-G-M Hollywood motion picture studios are busily engaged in building sets to be used in filming a movie on this beautiful section of the famed coast south of Carmel. The picture, "The Sandpiper," is scheduled to be filmed during the month of September, under the direction of Martin Ransohoff. Stars will be Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton.

"Happy Birthday, Peter"

Hands and face smeared with white icing, Peter Lloyd was the center of attention at a beach picnic Sunday evening. It was his first birthday and those who sang "Happy Birthday" for him were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. (Skip) Lloyd; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd; his aunts, Mrs. Nathaniel Baylis and Mrs. John Williams, and their husbands; his cousins, Owen and Lloyd Baylis and Anna Williams; also Mrs. Grattan English; Mrs. N. R. Farbman; Mark, Eric and Dean Farbman; and Sam Colburn. Later Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carney joined the group around the picnic fire.

Sherrill And Craig Wed

Before their families and a group of close friends, Sherrill A. Tegmeir, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Tegmeir of Pacific Grove, and John Craig Neikirk, the son of Mrs. Robert Reynolds and the late John H. Neikirk, of Carmel, were married in All Saints' Episcopal Church on July 25, with the Reverend David Hill performing the nuptials.

The bride's white satin brocade dress was cocktail length. Her shoulder length veil of illusion net was held by a Dior bow of satin and she carried a traditional bridal bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis.

Sherrill was attended by Mrs. Jack Stevens of Pacific Grove whose husband acted as John's best man. The matron of honor wore a pink mohair suit and carried pink roses.

Mrs. Tegmeir, mother of the bride, chose an ensemble of yellow raw silk for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of yellow orchids. Mrs. Reynolds, mother of the bridegroom, wore a model suit of off-white silk linen, her small hat matched her corsage of pale gold-toned orchids.

The reception, following the ceremony, was held in the Reynoldses' home in Rancho Rio Vista.

Following a wedding trip to the Mother Lode country, Mr. and Mrs. Neikirk will make their home in Carmel Valley.

Miss Crawford Returns

Miss Dolores Crawford, now living in Washington, D.C., was for many years a resident of Carmel and secretary to the rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church. She is here, visiting her long-time friend, Miss Lila Adams. Miss Crawford acted as secretary to Herbert Hoover during his Presidential administration. Asked about life in the capital during the past months, Miss Crawford had just one word, "Chaotic!"

Pianists' Reunion

Two notable East Coast pianists are currently visiting Carmel. They are old friends and being here at the same time is a happy coincidence and a surprise for both.

Warren Case, head of the Community School of Music in Buffalo, New York, and for many years on the faculty of the David Mannes School in New York City, is the houseguest of Fred Schaad, his sister, Miss Marion Schaad and Miss Katherine Hahl.

Pianist Gordon Stanley, for many years associated with the Juilliard School of Music in New York City and now a resident of Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, is here visiting Mrs. Lucille Nelson. Both musicians were long associated with the late Ernest Hutchinson. They are looking forward to Miss Angie Machado's return from Hawaii, about August 18, with the promise of catching up on local musical news and impromptu concertizing in her hospitable studio.

To Go To SJSC

Young Chris and Niki (Budd) Wilkin are in a jubilant state of excitement these days. Chris, who has completed a year at Sierra Junior College, has been notified of his transfer to San Jose State College. Niki will leave their baby son, Paul, in grandma's charge next week while she consults the college authorities at San Jose on "married housing." She and Chris and Paul have spent the summer in the Budd home on San Antonio while her mother, Mrs. Paul Budd, and sister, Carla, and Carla's husband, Jim Gingery, were touring Europe. In Paris now, the trio are expected home next week.

Letter to President

DeForest Sweeney of Carmel is one of the 60 American teachers and school administrators attending the summer institute of the East-West Center in Honolulu who decided to write letters to President Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Congressional leaders praising the center, a national institution established by Congress to promote mutual understanding among the peoples of Asia, the Pacific Basin and the United States. The center is run in cooperation with the University of Hawaii.

Mr. Sweeney, on sabbatical leave from the faculty of Monterey Peninsula College, was granted a scholarship to the center's summer session. After leaving Hawaii, he will spend some time working with students in Japan, before, with Mrs. Sweeney, continuing on a trip around the world.

A former Carmelite, Dr. Alex Spoehr, was head of the center until he resigned in January.

Guests of the Whites

With the situation in the Gulf of Tonkin one of tense waiting for news for the wives and families of U.S. Navy personnel on duty there, Mrs. E. M. (Betty White) Cooke, daughter of the G. Ferneaux Whites, has come from her home in La Jolla, with her three children, to visit her parents. Betty's husband is CAG

Commander, Air Group, aboard the U. S. jet carrier Ticonderoga. Also visiting the Whites is Mrs. White's sister, Miss Marie Swain, of White Plains, N.Y.

Art News

Etchings, a collection of the works of Big Sur artists, will be presented in a special showing at the Coast Art Gallery, Big Sur, opening Saturday and continuing through September 10. To open the show, Mrs. LaVerne Allen, curator of the gallery, is holding a public reception for the artists, this Saturday from 3 p.m. until 8 p.m. The six artists whose works will be exhibited, and who will be present on Saturday to meet guests at the reception and visitors to the gallery, will be Harry Batlin, Dorothy Bowman, Howard Bradford, Helen Colby, Eve Miller Ross and Harry Dick Ross. Each of these artists work in various media and are noted for them. Recently they have become engrossed with the etching processing and the coming show will present the results of their interesting accomplishments.

The Coast Gallery is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is situated a few miles south of Big Sur, at Lafler Creek on Highway One.

Opening on Saturday at the American Federation of Arts Gallery on Lincoln street will be a showing of traditional Chinese art treasures. On exhibit will be eight jade objects from the collection of Miss Ling Fu Yang, a long-time Carmel resident, and internationally known as a poet and artist.

Also featured will be traditional scroll paintings by Lani Mar, who studied this ancient form on Taiwan. She and her husband, Major Harry Mar, are both native-born Chinese living on the Peninsula while Major Mar is a student in the Greek department of the Defense Language Institute. On leaving Taiwan, Lani Mar promised to show her work to illustrate the continuing and flourishing interest in Chinese traditional art being maintained in Formosa.

The exhibit is being arranged by Dr. Gabriel McCloud, a resident of Pacific Grove, who is showing, from his private collection, ancient bronzes and Tang Dynasty jewelry in silver.

An admission charge of 50 cents for this exhibit will be made, with free admission to AFA members. Gallery hours will be from 11:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays and from 2:00-5:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Louisa Jenkins of Big Sur will be a member of the jury for the fourth annual October Juried Art Competition and Exhibit at the de Saisset Art Gallery of the University of Santa Clara.

Entries will be accepted from September 10 to 14 at the gallery on the campus. Four cash prizes are offered. They are a purchase award prize, $600, and three others of $300, $200, and $100. Professional and non-professional artists may submit entries. There is a free choice of subject matter in either painting, sculpture or mosaic.

In addition to Mrs. Jenkins, jurors will be Lundy Siegfried and N. Eric Oberback.

Louisa Jenkins won first prize money for "Black Madonna," an oil painting she submitted in last year's competition at the university. She also creates what she calls "accretions." These are layers of transparent papers impressed with organic substances upon a gesso board interspersed with paintings. Much of the organic material she has gathered from tidepools and beaches, or while skin-diving in the ocean.

The Studio Lagorio, this weekend, will be brimming over with Lagorios honoring John Stump, head librarian of the historic Mechanics Institute Library, San Francisco. Mr. Stump will be in Carmel Saturday and Sunday as the house guest of the Lagorios in their unique home, formerly the Forest Hill School, now made over into a home and working studio by this diverse family of architects, educators and artists.

Professor and Mrs. Henry Lagorio will drive from Berkeley, with their niece Laura Cavagnolo, for the occasion. Elmer Lagorio, of El Cerrito, will be present as co-host with sisters Elena Lagorio and Irene Lagorio. The latter artist member of the family is known locally for her exhibition at the Laky Gallery, also paintings and sculptures at the Mark Thomas Inn.

Mr. Stump is the brother of Professor Harold Stump whose lectures at Carmel's American Federation of Arts headquarters have been a source of much entertainment and pleasure to members of the Carmel community.

The Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts is planning a permanent art museum and workshop classrooms housed, perhaps, in a two-story building which would also contain a library, offices, restrooms, kitchen and storage space, according to the organization's August bulletin. A possible site for this envisioned development may be the Sunset School cultural and community center.

The art exhibit at the Cabrillo Music Festival in Aptos, August 21-23, will include an outdoor show of West Coast sculpture, a group of Picasso ceramics, and German expressionist paintings and graphics.

In the sculpture show will be works by Max Alfert, Ron Boise, Arlo Acton, Jeremy Anderson, Sidney Gordin, Charles Ross, Robert Brotherton, Hobart Brown, Ralph Hollows, John Jagger, McGrail, and Kapel.

Expressionists Kokoschka, Nolde, Macke, Beckmann, Jawlensky, Hofer, Pechstein, Vlaminck, Munch, Rohlf, Dix, Bar-

The Cabrillo college exhibit is the first major showing of Arthur Samuel's work. On display will be 65 of his watercolors and drawings.

Dr. Charles N. Pearson, of Carmel, has been appointed an area coordinator for the fifth annual photo contest sponsored by the California Optometric Association. He is director of education and research for the Central Coast Optometric Society.

The contest is open to all photographers, amateur or professional, in California. There is no entry fee. It solicits pictures, in black and white prints or color slides, interpreting the theme, "The Wonderful World of Vision."

Joan Baez Featured In Magazine Story

This month's issue of "Mademoiselle" has an article on Joan Baez telling of the terrific impact this nationally-famous singer, who makes her home here, has on audiences all over the United States. The article is written by Richard Farina, her brother-in-law, also a local resident.

Joan is giving a benefit on September 5 at the Monterey Fairgrounds. Proceeds from this concert will benefit Pioneer House, the new, and only, nursery school in Seaside.

Sponsors of the event are the Monterey chapter of the American Federation of Teachers. Mothers of students in the Carmel Co-operative Nursery School are selling tickets as their contribution to the true community effort. Tickets may also be obtained in Carmel at Central Box Office.

The Joan Baez concert will take place on the Saturday evening of Labor Day weekend. Local persons are advised to obtain tickets early as visitors from all over California are expected to come to the Peninsula especially to hear Joan sing.

Last Fall she received an invitation to sing at the White House. However, the assassination of President Kennedy cancelled this appearance and she sang, instead, at a Democratic rally, at the request of President Johnson.

forms may be obtained from Dr. Pearson or by writing the COA Photo Contest, 926 Jay Building, Suite 810, Sacramento, California 95814.

The Sur Coast

By ELIZABETH FULLER JONES

Little Lyric Theatre Of Big Sur

When the final curtain came down after the first performance of the "Little Lyric Theatre of Big Sur," last Sunday night, it was felt by many, close to this project, that this is only the beginning of a rich and rewarding experience for those taking part in this summertime workshop. With less than a dozen practice sessions to their credit, 33 boys and girls from Carmel Valley and Big Sur that made up this year's "theater" gave a program of music and song that any community, large or small, would be proud to call their own. It was a remarkable illustration of what can be accomplished by an efficient, dedicated director, working with a group of willing, earnest, talented young citizens. If one were to judge by the spontaneous and thunderous applause both during the production and at the close of it, one would know that this was a well-executed, well-accepted and well-appreciated summer program, one that should continue for years to come.

The "Little Lyric Theater of Big Sur," is the realization of a long-time dream of the musical director, Gene Perrine, to establish such a workshop for children in this Sur Coast community. It has been made possible (and its continuance is assured) by a foundation grant secured through the generosity of a highly-esteemed member of the Big Sur community.

The non-profit theater presented its first performance last Saturday afternoon and Sunday evening in the Big Sur Grange Hall. First on the program was Echo and Narcissus, an opera based on the Greek myth. The libretto and music, was composed entirely by members of the theater, using a five-tone scale. Second, a one-act musical, "Chain of Jade," based on The Stolen Prince by Dan Totheroh, with lyrics and adaptation by David Rogers and music by Mark Buccì. The musical was produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

Director Perrine was ably and efficiently assisted in this endeavor by Catherine Bengston, official photographer, Eve Ross and Marge Johnson for the beautiful, authentic costumes, Harry Dick Ross for stage settings and lighting by Robert Skiles. The costumes were rich in color and design and the stage settings outstanding, each enhanced by the well planned and used lighting.

The perfect timing, the precision with which each individual carried out his part of the production was most remarkable. Members of the theater from Big Sur were: Brock and Cyn-dra Bradford, Jane and Lincoln Curtis, Ray Ellis, Maya Hartman, Darlen and Heidi Hopkins, Cella Morganrauth, Jeanette Ramsdale, Conrad Selvig, Christine and Mark Sullivan. From Carmel Valley: Elaine and Ronnie Bennett, Kim Buchenroth, By and Chet and Tim Cordrey, Shawn Davis, Lindy and Laurie Doud, Gregg Drew, Greg and Peter Granoff, Gary and Michelle Holmes, Marvis Huss, Susan Klas, Mikelie Korver, Mindy Rayne, Sidney Richerts, Sara Senger and Robby Wood.

"Theory and Development of Individualized Instructional Materials" was the title of a month-long workshop conference conducted by Dr. Don F. Parker, of Big Sur, and held at Columbia University, New York, during the past month. In attendance at this great university's conference were teachers from all levels, from first grade through the administrative branch of education. They came from all areas of the United States, from Australia and from East Africa. Dr. Parker's method of teacher-education, based upon the individual needs of the student, is well-known in this country and many areas of the world. It is interesting to note that the Parker multilevel, reading laboratories are in use at the unique, little one-room school at Palo Colorado, a member of the Carmel Unified School District. This spring Dr. and Mrs. Parker moved from Evanston, Illinois to their new home, "Emilimar" located in the Coastlands area of Big Sur.

The United States-Soviet Union track and field meet held in Los Angeles recently was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Johnson of Big Sur. The Johnsons travel to most of the track meets and relays held in Western states, and they were particularly enthusiastic about the US-USSR event. It is considered the most important track meet in America and is a "sort of preview of the Olympics." It had its beginning six years ago and is the outgrowth of a college coach's idea of bringing the two countries together in this type of dual competition. For three years the meet was staged in Moscow and another three in the United States. In 1962 the Johnsons were among the thousands of spectators seeing the two teams compete at Stanford stadium in Palo Alto.

At Los Angeles there were 22 events for men and ten for women. Each nation enters two persons for each category, plus two for the three relays included in the competition.

At the close of the two-day competition, there was an impressive expression of friendship when the two teams, arm in arm, circled around the great coliseum field, the Johnsons report.

"Improvisation Through Theatre Games" is the subject of a two-week seminar to be held at the Big Sur Hot Springs Lodge beginning October 3. The seminar and workshop will be conducted by Miss Viola Spolin, one of the members of Chicago's well-known improvisational theatre named "Second City." Miss Spolin is founder and director of the Young Actors Company of Hollywood. Through her experience as a drama coach and her attempt to solve the problem of attaining natural and spontaneous stage behavior, she invented theater games. These games are a simple, uncomplicated way of freeing an individual for personal expression and are used by neighborhood and community theaters. They also are being used as activity therapy in mental health programs and for the training of teachers and group leaders in various community projects.

Other events scheduled at the Big Sur Hot Springs Lodge, located 11 miles south of Big Sur on Highway One, are: September 11-13, a seminar with Alan Watts, who again comes to the coastal resort after a two-year fellowship at Harvard University; September 8-16, A Trip with Ken Kesey. Mr. Kesey is author of two books "One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest" and "Sometimes a Great Notion"; September 18-20, a workshop entitled "Speculations About Man and His Future," conducted by Gene Sagan, clinical psychologist from Berkeley and Seymour Locks, sculptor and professor of art at San Francisco State College.

NOTICE REGARDING TELEPHONE CHARGES

A portion of the telephone charges you now pay may be subject to refund if a decision of the California Public Utilities Commission is sustained on Court review. The operative effect of this decision is now stayed pending Court review and no refunds will be made at this time. During the period of the stay the Company will maintain the necessary records to make refunds possible for services billed to your home or business.

However, in order for you to make claims for refunds on Long Distance calls paid for at coin box telephones or at hotels or motels, it will be necessary for you to maintain a personal record of such calls. Calls subject to possible refund are the following calls between points within the State of California:

- Daytime station-to-station calls (between 4:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.) costing 70¢ or more for the initial period.
- Night and Sunday station-to-station calls (from 6 p.m. to 4:30 a.m.) costing 60¢ or more for the initial period.
- Person-to-person calls costing 45¢ or more for the initial period.

In most cases the amount of refund would be 5¢ or 10¢ for the initial period, with additional amounts applying to certain overtime charges.

Records you keep for coin box, hotel and motel calls to points within the State of California should include:

1. Telephone number from which you made the call, including the Area Code.
2. Telephone number you called, including the Area Code.
3. Date and time of day.
4. Whether the call was station-to-station or person-to-person.
5. Amount paid for the call.
6. Name of hotel or motel, where involved.

The method of making refunds for calls from coin box telephones and from telephones in hotel and motel rooms, if refunds become due, will be specified in public notices.

We appreciate your understanding.

MPVS Gives Check To Youth Center, Plans Flea Market

Last Friday, Mrs. C. E. Jett, president of Monterey Peninsula Services, presented a check for $3,250 to Edward Singleton, member of the board of directors of the Visiting Nurse Association.

Another check for $1,402.50 was given by Mrs. Mary Thomas, MPVS Thrift Shop chairman, to Tasha Seeders, vice president of the Carmel Youth Center.

The presentations were made at the annual MPVS luncheon in La Playa Hotel. The Visiting Nurse Association check represented the net proceeds of the MPVS House and Garden Tour in July, Mrs. Charlotte Wight, tour treasurer, announced. Mrs. Roland W. Scheffler was general chairman for this event.

During a business meeting before the luncheon, MPVS voted upon distribution of proceeds of the organization's Flea Market. This fund-raising affair will take place on October 7 at the Monterey County Fairgrounds.

One-third of the money realized from the Flea Market will go to procure a bus for Logan Hall School for Retarded Children in Carmel Valley. A second one-third will go to the building fund of the New Monterey Neighborhood Center. The last one-third will benefit the Monterey USO.

This distribution was recommended after careful investigation by the finance committee of which Miss Ruth Blanchard is chairman. Other members are Mrs. Archer Allen, Mrs. C. E. Jett, Miss Minna Goodwin, Mrs. Laurids Jorgensen, Mrs. Lawrence Kinsler, Mrs. Marjorie Oren, Mrs. Hugh Utley and Mrs. David Taylor.

Mrs. Thomas G. Duncan, chairman of the Flea Market, heard reports from her various chairmen. The Flea Market will contain a cafe and booths selling jewelry, clothing, linens, hats and accessories, household appliances and bric-a-brac, books, gourmet items and many other things. There will be door prizes and the entrance fee will be $1.00.

The sum given the Carmel Youth Center last Friday was realized by sales at the MPVS Thrift Shop during the first two weeks of July. Jack Giles, director, and Mrs. Waldo Hicks, president of the youth center adult board, thanked MPVS and commended youth center members for their work in collecting and handling merchandise for the shop during the above period.

The Monterey County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was voted a gift of some furniture and $250 for their office.

A letter was read by Mrs. C. E. Howland, acting corresponding secretary, from the Community Hospital Auxiliary, thanking MPVS for their gift of $3,527.29 to supply the hospital with a volometer. This enables a doctor to know the exact amount of blood and body fluid in a patient's system at any given moment. The sum was the result of the June sales at the Thrift Shop.

The Student Employment Service also wrote to thank MPVS for a gift of $150 to help procure needed office supplies.

New Security Bank Planned For Carmel

NO CHANGE IN POLICIES

Mr. Burkett said that a Carmel site will not be selected until suitable parking facilities can be obtained in the post office area. He said that the bank will continue its early American decor of the "good old days" of the bank's Pacific Grove, Carmel Rancho, and Seaside offices, and their old-fashioned policy of no service charges for accounts with a minimum balance of $500. He said that he believes Carmel residents will particularly appreciate the "person to person", no-automation type of banking service that the bank strives to give.

William A. Burkett, president, J. Harold Harper, vice president, and Stanley Ewig, manager Carmel Rancho branch of the Security National Bank reading telegram from the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C. granting new bank for downtown Carmel—the first new independent bank for Carmel in 41 years.

When Mr. Burkett was superintendent of banks for the State of California, he was a known foe of statewide banks for closing on Saturday in smaller communities. When he became president of Security National, he was the first banker in California to restore Saturday banking. In recent months, a number of banks have followed his policy and have re-established Saturday banking. Mr. Burkett said that the new Carmel office will remain open Saturday mornings and will maintain its unusual banking hours of 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily, as will its Carmel Rancho office opened one and one-half years ago.

PHENOMENAL GROWTH CITED

Mr. Burkett attributed the bank's recent rapid growth and branch expansion to its policy of giving extra banking hours for the convenience of its customers and lower interest rates to its borrowers. He said that local stock ownership and the interest shown by depositors in telling their friends about the bank's old-fashioned banking policies had jumped the number of the bank's customers from 1,200 to over 11,000 in a three-year period. He cited the bank's 4½% auto loans, the lowest in this area, which have brought hundreds of new customers to the bank.

Since Mr. Burkett became president of the bank in 1961, the total of deposits has increased by over 450%, and in increase in accounts by over 800%.

NEW STOCK TO BE ISSUED

Ten thousand new shares of the bank's stock will be issued at $32 per share to increase the bank's capital for the Carmel branch, Mr. Burkett said. Last January 11,000 shares were offered to permit the establishment of the Monterey office and the stock was oversubscribed the first day.

The new stock will be sold only to depositors of the bank, Burkett said, and will be released some time in November.

NEW PLAY READING GROUP

A play reading group has recently been organized at the Church of the Wayfarer. Already several of Shakespeare's plays have been read.

Tomorrow promptly at 7:30 p.m. the group will read a verse drama on an ancient Greek theme written by Dr. Fred L. Farley of Carmel. The following week, Shakespeare's "Cymbeline" will be read.

All persons who would enjoy taking part in the reading, or only listening, are invited to attend the meetings in the Garden Room at the church.

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

This library is always interested in books on geriatrics and on retirement. It was a shocker to buy a small book on places to which to retire on a small income and find no mention of Carmel. Second thought suggested that this omission might not be accidental. The book is a paperback by Norman Ford and it is called WHERE TO RETIRE ON A SMALL INCOME. In somewhat the same vein we have 101 WAYS TO ENJOY YOUR LEISURE which is a Retirement Council publication with so many happy pictures that reading it should swell the ranks of the retired almost at once.

We have two new books on New York. One of them is a book on the popular pastime called eating. The title is THE NEW YORK TIMES GUIDE TO DINING OUT IN NEW YORK. Restaurants are graded by one, two, or three stars, and there is an index by area. The other book is called THE FACE OF NEW YORK. A little oversize, this book is filled with fascinating photographs of the city as it was and is. To a confirmed Carmelite, the picture of Coney Island is enough to cause a spell of the kollywobles.

Remembering that this is the age of the picture book for adults, we bring to your attention AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF RUSSIA by Joel Carmichael. It begins with an engraving from the 17th century and ends with a grim picture of a smiling Khrushchev. In between there is everything about this country which is as large as the entire North American continent.

A biography of Burt Standish, who wrote the Frank Merriwell stories, turns out to be a biography of Gilbert Patten which was the writer's real name. Patten began writing the Merriwell books in 1896 and sold more than 500 million of them. This book started to be an autobiography but the author died before it was finished and two writers completed it for him. The title is FRANK MERRIWELL'S FATHER. Shall those of us who never read a Frank Merriwell now bow our heads in shame? Actually, they were a little before my time, and nowadays it seems it's pretty hard to find anything like that, so the idea sort of pleases me.

Once upon a time there was a girl in Pearl River, New York, who went to Europe as an intelligence agent in World War II. Just like a fairy story she met and married the Conde de Quintanilla. Now she is the Condesa, rich, beautiful, the mother of three sons, and rated one of the world's best-dressed women. She has written her story and entitled it THE EARTH RESTS LIGHTLY. She has a sort of home-like style, very easy to read, and enjoyable.

THE DUCHESS OF JERYN

STREET was Rosa Lewis who ran the old Cavendish Hotel in London during a mad, mad era. The book about her was written by Daphne Fielding who knew her always, and loved her.

Edward Streeter says that his new book is not a travel book not really, but is merely an account of a happy automobile trip from Spain to Yugoslavia. You are invited to go along with them if you wish to. The book is called ALONG THE RIDGE.

That's all for this week.

New Play Tonight, Concert Sunday, At White Oaks Theatre

Opening tonight at Carmel Valley's White Oaks Theatre is the well-known musical comedy, "The Pajama Game." Described by Walter Kerr of the New York Herald Tribune as "bright, brassy and jubilantly sassy," "The Pajama Game" has played to packed houses ever since its Broadway opening in May of 1954.

Based on the best-selling novel "7½ Cents," it was adapted for the stage by its author, Richard Bissell, and George Abbott. Music and lyrics are by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, including such hits as "I'm Not At All In Love," "Hey There," "Small Talk," and "There Once Was a Man."

Primarily a song and dance show, "The Pajama Game" provides a tuneful, riotous and delightful evening for the entire family. Featuring the resident White Oaks company which, so far, has presented "The Boy Friend" and "The Three-Penny Opera," "The Pajama Game" will have a four-week run on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through September 6. Performances in the rustic barn theatre located behind the Village post office of Carmel Valley are at 8:30 p.m.

Continuing its successful run on Saturday afternoons is the comedy for children, "Rumpelstiltskin." Due to the success of this production, reservations are now being taken for, reserved seats. The previous policy had been to take reservations for birthday parties and special groups only.

The second artist to appear at White Oaks Theatre as part of this summer's concert season, is Carol Plantamura, soprano. She will sing works by Bach, Schumann, Mozart, and Benjamin Britten this coming Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

A soloist with the Bach Festival in 1959 and 1961, Miss Plantamura has been active in the development of contemporary music in Los Angeles. A graduate in music from Occidental College, and a member of the University of Southern California opera department, Miss Plantamura has just received a Rockefeller grant to study with the contemporary composer, Lukas Foss, at the University of Buffalo this Fall. In Los Angeles Miss Plantamura has performed frequently for the Monday Evening Concerts, the American Musicological Society and the International Society for Contemporary Music, and has worked under the noted composer-conductors, Pierre Boulez and Mel Powell.

Miss Plantamura will be accompanied by William Wells, a graduate of Occidental College currently working on his DMA at Stanford University.

Senator Farr To Use New Mobile Office

State Senator Fred Farr of Carmel (D-Monterey County) has acquired a mobile legislative office for visits to constituents in all parts of the county.

He has made personal purchase of a Ford Econoline which has been especially equipped for the purpose. In so doing Senator Farr is the first California legislator to use a mobile office for legislative representation.

He will drive the new mobile office annex unit for the first time in a series of county-wide visits scheduled to start next week.

Senator Farr's itinerary includes more than 30 communities and agricultural areas in his state senatorial district.

Meetings with groups and individuals will include discussions relative to current, pending and future legislative measures of significance to all Monterey County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Continuing a series of Bible Lessons on names which belong to God, the subject at Christian Science services on Sunday will be "Soul."

The Bible readings will include this verse from Psalms: "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

Related readings from the Christian Science textbook will include these lines: "Immortality, exempt from age or decay, has a glory of its own,—the radiance of Soul . . . Beauty is a thing of life, which dwells forever in the eternal Mind and reflects the charms of His goodness in expression, form, outline, and color" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mark Baker Eddy, p. 247).

BY CAROLYN ELSTOB

No matter who started it, trillions of years ago, the Fall of Woman is certainly a brand new and fascinating story this year of 1964! Is she going to Shift into it, or travel A-line or cavort in pleats with her waistline where her hips used to curve?? Here in Carmel she will undoubtedly revolutionize the centuries-old ideas of home decoration. . . Her children will go into the Fall too, in togs that were never thought of before. And when they're at home from school, will she fidget? N-o-o-o!! The little lambs will be too, too fascinated with toys so alluring that when Daddy comes home, don't hurry dinner, he'll be right there on the floor with the small fry. Remember, Adam fiddled around, climbing apple trees. . . Oh well, everywhere I turn in the Village, the shops are bursting with goodies to make Your Fall spectacular!

Pant-ing little boys has for years and years been a neglected problem, that is from the comfort as well as the fashion angles. Measurements were "set" according to age, and it seems that the pants makers all took it for granted that all little boys had the same hip and waist measurements. Not so! At Belles and Beaus there is a brand new collection for boys—sizes four to six X. . . regular sizes and "Slims." Fashioned by the famous house of Oxford in wonderful long wearing 50% fortrel polyester and 50% combed cotton, wash and wear scotchgard, you may choose khaki for play and school; cream color for his social occasions. Top them with a dashing turtle neck slip-on sweater of cotton or orlon knit (they come in a grand assortment of colors. . . While you are there feast your eyes on little girl fashions too, they're a joy. For exclusive fashions for infants, toddlers, girls to size 14 and boys to six X. BELLES AND BEAUS, on SIXTH AVENUE BETWEEN DOLORES AND LINCOLN.

And do you know what 99% of all grown men fall for really go right down on their hands and knees for? You're just guessing! Not blondes, not brandy, not even baseball. They go completely gaga over TOYS. I've proved it over and over, and just this week I did it again. I took my six-year-old grandson to the Carmel Toy Shop to select his own gift, AND his father, a really erudite young man with all sorts of degrees from Cornell, tagged along. While the six-year-old went about the serious business of selecting what he knew he wanted, "Daddy" went berserk with delight over "Mr. Ed" the talking horse and the marvelous life-size parrot that yaks all sorts of amazing wisecracks (Marvelous at a cocktail party). . . We heard that a pediatrician carried off the talking clown for his waiting room. The battery-operated engines and ocean liners had Daddy right down on the floor. The new collection of dolls intrigued me—they're really life-like charmers. Take your children—and to see your stalwart man really fall.

take him to THE CARMEL TOY SHOP, SAN CARLOS AT FIFTH.

If you are even dimly conscious, that is fashion conscious, you will go into your Fall in a suit. And sad, but true. Last year's suit is definitely dated! the most beautiful and varied spanking new collection I've seen so far in Carmel is in Pernie's! Right up in front are the Bianca knits, two and three-piece, with all sorts of new fashion innovations. Longer jackets are in evidence, but the beloved Chanel type is still awfully good and almost universally becoming. Wonderful color contrasts are achieved in pipings or in the blouse. AND multi-color yarns create a tweed effect in grand looped mohair. Real tweed suits are strictly tailored with surprise pockets. . . formal afternoon models, or three-piece affairs. Dresses feature the new lowered waist line. The sheath and shift are still with us. I saw a wizard herringbone tweed with cream white (detachable) dicky, long sleeves and under cuffs! Most dramatic of all, here is where you will find fashions from size 7 through size 46. . . and but where else would you think of looking for your Fall hat? PERNIE'S, DOLORES BETWEEN OCEAN AND SEVENTH.

In the coat and suit department, it is a delightfully cheery room where exclusive label coats, jackets and suits are aplenty. I made some champion finds. . . in The Mark Fenwick Shop, of course. The beautifully tailored lightweight little suits by Crazy Horse, are perfect for travel, for eastern campus wear through the autumn and under coats later on. Tweeds, bold two-color checks and blends of wool and nylon were eye-catching winners. Some, but not all jackets are longer, nearly every model flaunted surprise pockets. Don't miss the Boe Jests! This east coast house is winning tremendous popularity with the college crowd, and no wonder! Besides suits, their separate skirts—tweed, A-line, with patch pockets of suede; corduroy with great pocket, leather bound and a looped sort of dog chain. I don't know why, for conversation I guess. There are wonderful fringe trimmed sweaters—perfect matches. The new Gordon Ford classics, of which there are none more elegant, are just being unpacked. Heavenly soft glove-suede jackets in terrific colors! And—just a nudge. . . gasp at Samuel Robert's white, sheared lamb full length coat—black leather faced and bound.

For sheer lunacy, climax your visit in this treasure spot by trying on the jumper (beautiful grey wool and nylon blend) with honest-to-heaven purses (three) scattered over its front. . . there's a variation in the second model—vari-color patches of felt on tweed. All these "firsts" and more, you'll find at MARK FENWICK SHOP, CARMEL PLAZA and STEVENS CREEK PLAZA, SANTA CLARA.

And! Despite the world-known fact that no really clever woman would dream of going into her Fall without that BLACK get-up. . . to stun her girl friends and stagger her admirers. . . I found amazingly little in the way of black fashions. . . until I strolled into that utterly sophisticated boutique, Rose Brown's! And there I found such wicked black, black fashions as I'd never seen before!! The Gino Pabli knit suits, of a wool and silk blend or chavisette, are 3-piece, to be worn with endless variation. Imported from Italy, their detailing is exquisite! Walter Bass has done a cocktail dress in Italian silk and wool that really takes the plunge. . . in back right down to half an inch above the waistline, so-o-o-o if you are considering turning your back—do go see! Begged-Or of Israel is a favorite in this shop and no wonder, his black suede formal (jewel or V neck line), is breathtaking. There are two-piece dresses to be considered. . . And don't miss the Poncho suit, a two-piece affair in alpaca fleece. The poncho top has terrific versatility—opens all the way down the front can be worn over dresses or sleek pants as well as with its own skirt. When you're in that soignée black mood, the spot for you is ROSE BROWN'S BOUTIQUE, CARMEL PLAZA on OCEAN AVENUE.

I really thought I was fairly well immune to surprises in Carmel shops, but! Mary May, whose Boudoir and Bathroom Accessories emporium is unique to begin with, has added a wizard fashion to her display. Now you can go from the shower to the drawing room—well, almost—in her glamorized Mu-Mu created from three bath towels! Of course they are exquisite bath towels! Beautifully patterned and bordered, in divine colors, the towels may be bought in their original state and if you're handy with the needle Mary May will show you how it's done—or you can buy this wondrous garment made to your order! Have you seen and touched her bath towels of nylon velvet? Washable and moisture absorbent of course! And the towels with satin appliques? Your home life will be not merely clean and bright, you'll start and end the day in a glow of exquisite color harmonies. The coordinated accessories for boudoir and bath, mostly handmade, are bewitching. Acquired singly or en masse—you'll find top drawer gifts—for yourself, for brides, and here's a thought, for girls going off to college! MARY MAY'S, SOUTHWEST CORNER, DOLORES AND SIXTH.

What's doing?

Meet the Monterey Order Typing Department. They are, from front to back, Judy Farthing, Karen Kowalcik, Carolyn Townsend, Ruth Grooms, and Rose Mayes. They play a very important part in expediting telephone service to Monterey peninsulans. When you place an order for new service or to change your old service, it is immediately transmitted to our various other departments by teletypewriter. This starts the processes of installation, billing, and listing the service. There are approximately 250 to 300 orders transmitted by our order typists every business day.

If I asked you to describe the shape of a telephone manhole cover, chances are you'd say it's round. And you'd be right. But do you know why it's round? Safety is one good reason. No matter how you turn it, a circular lid can't fall into the hole it covers.

And here's a bit of irony: The automobiles which roll over the lids are in many cases getting acquainted with their future. Why? Because, old motor blocks are the most common source of the cast iron used in manufacturing new covers.

ONLY IN CARMEL

Observed By
Harry Fletcher

Visitors, tourists and vacationers are to Carmel an important asset, every month of the year, and Carmel business people are very much alive to this fact. Moreover, we realize that many of these visitors eventually become residents here, and add to our ranks as true Carmelites by adoption. And that is why it can be said that "Only in Carmel" do transient residents receive just as courteous service as the old-time, everyday customers, remembering that today's visitor is tomorrow's next-door neighbor.

One of the marvelous trends in men's clothes which particularly appeals to me is the popularity of the sports jacket for informal and even business wear, for those gentlemen who like to appear well-dressed. And there's a whole lot of summer and nice weather ahead for us, as we well know, and there's months and months left before cold weather sets in for us to enjoy these comfortable and smart-looking jackets. So, here's a timely tip for every man (and the man in your life, ladies). There's an almost incredible sale on at Kent of Carmel, Lincoln Street between 5th and 6th, where some handsome lightweight sports jackets, previously priced at $39.00 to $60.00, are going for half price. Can you imagine picking up one of these smart and attractive jackets for as low as $19.75? Well, it's true, and I'm losing no time getting one for myself. But if you can use one of these jackets (and what man can't) you'd better hurry down to Lincoln Court before they're all gone. And, take my word for it, they won't last long at this price. Remember, Kent of Carmel, Lincoln between 5th and 6th.

Here in Carmel there is nothing complicated or too technical about investing surplus funds in securities, since we have Irving Landberg & Co.'s branch on Dolores Street, between Sixth and Fifth Avenues. And that is because we may avail ourselves of the services of local residents in a spacious and friendly building with a wide-open door. Someone asked, "Why do people buy stocks?" And the answer is for the same reason that a person might want to own his own business or have a stake in one—to make money. The stock of a company represents the ownership of that company; if you own a share of stock in a company, in effect you own a piece of that company.

The associates at Landberg & Co. are there to help you, not to tell you what to do with your money. They are there to help you if you want them to—if you ask their advice and counsel. But they do not impose opinions or recommendations on any customer or prospective customer. What you buy or sell is your own business. If you so desire, they will give you all the facts and figures on any stock or bond you may be interested in, without charge. But the decision to invest must be yours. Drop in there sometime, just for a chat. It's just like talking to old friends. In fact, you soon will be old friends. Carmel friends. And that's Carmel for you.

When you go to Paris, or if you have recently returned, we hope you will enjoy or did enjoy the acquaintanceship of a Parisian who steered you to one of those delightful family restaurants in the general neighborhood of Montmartre, where the food has to be really good to be so popular with the natives. But, if you can't get away to go to Paris, you can do just as good right here in Carmel by having lunch or dinner at La Marmite, that cozy French family restaurant in Carmel Square, on San Carlos between Ocean and 7th Avenues.

I am a great one for getting my feet under a tablecloth and tucking a linen napkin under my chin and "going to it." And at La Marmite I am truly in my element—stuffing myself with the goodies such as beef or lamb stew cooked and served as only the French know how. At lunch, my favorite is their cold roast beef—and "only in Carmel" at "The Pot" can you get such roast beef. Of course, there's other good things to go with it, but you must try it for yourself. I'm not going to spoil your fun or take the edge off your appetite by spelling out all the details. Take your lady out to dinner tonight. You'll be smacking your lips.

County Residents Not Free-Loaders, Says Mrs. Thornburg

COUNTY BOOKS

Since 1914, the Carmel and county libraries have been affiliated. This has made possible added books for Carmel as well as reference resources impossible to provide without the county's help.

At present there are 16,000 county books in the Carmel library. Of these 6,000 are books for juveniles.

Monterey County pays Carmel $90 a month to house these books which are completely cataloged and need only to have their cards filed here.

The funds paid for housing county books are used to operate the Carmel library and, in effect, return some of the money paid in county library tax to the city. The remainder of the county library tax is allowed to Carmel for books bought by the county, and which remain here as long as they are needed. These, too are completely cataloged by the county.

JUVENILE BOOKS

Mrs. Thornburg says that for the past four years it has been the policy of Carmel's library to add very few children's books to its collection. Instead, the library has added more county juvenile books to those already provided by the county library. This policy has been followed ever since it became apparent the Carmel Unified School District was expanding greatly.

At present Carmel owns 1,000 less juvenile books than the county has placed here. Carmel's children's books are old and worn and outdated. Many will have to be discarded. As this is done, in accordance with the policy mentioned above, Carmel will have a greater proportion of county juvenile books, Mrs. Thornburg adds.

In order that the Carmel library may spend a higher percentage of book funds on lasting and reference books, also those of special interest to this particular community, the Carmel library board has a policy of requesting the county to provide popular books, as they are published, Mrs. Thornburg says.

At present Carmel library owns 44,489 books. County books in the library amount to 15,653.

OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS

In addition to the above books, the county is contributing to the city's reading public five periodicals and a Salinas newspaper. The county also pays for the McNaughton revolving book collection, provides direct reference help, a film projector and films for the use of Carmel organizations.

In 1955, Carmel library's reference collection consisted mainly of two encyclopedias, two almanacs and a few books. Reference books are expensive but Carmel is acquiring a good reference library while using county books when its own resources fail, Mrs. Thornburg indicates. When the county cannot send the required books in this category to Carmel, it gets them from any county library in California through requests to the California State Library.

LIBRARY CARDS

The Harrison Memorial Library issues six different types of library cards.

The greatest number of cards is issued to adult residents of Carmel, or to adults renting or owning property in Carmel but living elsewhere. Each of the 2,462 cards in this category, this year, were checked against a map of Carmel, Mrs. Thornburg declares.

As of the end of June, 817 high school students had blue cards. Adults may not charge out books on these cards, nor may students take out adult books on blue cards "when there is reasonable doubt that the books are intended for non-resident adults."

As of the same date, 1,248 juvenile cards had been issued to children below high school level. Many of them live in Carmel Unincorporated and it is because of this that the library has its policy of adding to its county juvenile book collection.

Mrs. Thornburg states that many of the children living in the environs of Carmel use the county bookmobile, also that many of the juvenile card holders live in Carmel and are free to use the county books.

The fourth type of card is for visitors and costs $3. The library keeps one dollar for any part of a month the card is used.

The fifth type of card is a fee card issued to non-residents on payment of $7. At the end of June, 511 of these were in use. This brought in revenue of $3,577 to the library.

The last type of card is issued to persons who only may take out county books in the Carmel library. Staff members check that only books bearing the Monterey County Library stamp are issued to these cardholders. Each card is stamped COUNTY also to prevent any city books being issued to these cardholders.

All cards in each category are issued for one year and are checked every six months. When a card is renewed at the end of the year, the library attendant checks mailing and residence addresses in the same way as when the card was first issued.

All the above information made available to the city council by Mrs. Thornburg will no doubt, aid Mr. Norberg and other taxpayers of the city who have had any reasonable doubt about the misuse of the library by residents of areas outside the city limits.

It should also help many to realize that the five-cent county library tax is not a burdensome inequity.

William Crocker

Private services were held this morning in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in San Mateo for the late William W. Crocker, who died in his Pebble Beach home on Tuesday following a heart attack.

Mr. Crocker, who was 71 years of age, was a member of California's pioneer banking and railroad building family. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crocker, and grandson of Charles Crocker, founder of the San Francisco bank which bore his name.

He graduated from Yale University in 1915 and served in the U.S. Army Second Division as an officer in field artillery, 1917 and 1918.

A civic and cultural leader and philanthropist, Mr. Crocker carried on the business enterprises of the Crocker family, and headed the Crocker-Anglo Bank, predecessor of the state-wide Crocker-Citizens Bank.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Fullerton Coleman Crocker of Pebble Beach; a son, William Henry Crocker, II, of Washington, D.C.; a daughter,

WHAT CARMEL OWNS

An appraisal of property owned by the city, completed last week, shows that Carmel possesses land valued at the following amounts: corporation yard on Junipero Street, $275,000; adjacent White property on Torres, $90,000; youth center in same block, $120,000; police station $90,000; city hall, $120,000; Forest Theater, $100,000; Devendorf Plaza, $100,000; post office parking lot, $85,000; fire station, $75,000; Forest Hill Park tennis court block, $50,000; Forest Hill Park shuffleboard court block, $60,000.

Improvements at the youth center are appraised at $75,000 and at the fire station, $25,000.

Appraisal of both land and improvements totals $1,265,000.

The appraisal was made by August R. Nieto, Leo Tanous and Robert E. Ross, members of the Carmel Board of Realtors, at the request of City Clerk Hugh Bayless.

Of the above properties, deed restrictions prevent the sale of the youth center, Devendorf Plaza and both blocks of Forest Hill Park.

Mr. van der Sluis

Elbert van der Sluis, resident of Carmel for the past six years, died early Tuesday morning in a local nursing home.

Mr. van der Sluis was born in the Netherlands, September 14, 1888.

Up to the time of his retirement, in 1958, Mr. van der Sluis lived in Glendora where he was engaged in citrus ranching. He was an executive of the Sunbelt Corporation.

He is survived by his wife, Agnes; his son, William, and a daughter, Mrs. Kline Coleman, all of Carmel; also five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in All Saints' Episcopal Church on Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. Inurnment will follow in Oakdale Cemetery in Glendora. The Mission Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

TOWN HOUSE PROGRAMS AND TOUR ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Frank Scott, now residing at the Carmel Valley Manor, will show her colored slides of birds at two identical Carmel Foundation Town House programs at 1:30 and at 3 p.m. on Wednesday afternoon. Anyone interested in seeing these unusual pictures is invited.

Senior Tours announces that August 18 is the deadline for signing up for a bus trip via Williamsburg to the New York World's Fair. Due to unexpected last minute dropouts, there are a few reservations available to non-members in either single or a twin-bedded accommodations enroute. The trip returns via the Fall color route, leaving Carmel September 15 and returning October 17.

Mrs. Diana Redington of San Francisco; and a sister, Mrs. Henry Potter Russell of Carmel Valley.

Following this morning's services, burial took place in Cypress Lawn Memorial Park in Colma. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

Unread Brief Stays Court Ruling On Fine Arts Gallery

What is called a brief, even though it had 75 pages, delayed any Federal Court ruling in San Francisco Monday on the legality of the Fine Arts Gallery of Scottsdale Inc. operating in Carmel which has an emergency interim ordinance prohibiting auction sales.

U.S. District Judge Albert C. Wollenberg discussed the case with the city's and gallery's attorneys for two hours, then postponed further hearing until he had had time to read the lengthy brief prepared by the gallery's attorneys.

The gallery has been conducting "public sales" on San Carlos Street for a month while the city has sought rulings in either Superior or Federal Court to uphold municipal auction and zoning ordinances.

Subpoenaed by the gallery as witnesses Monday were Planning Director Floyd Adams and City Auditor Arthur Plaxton. Neither were called upon. City Clerk Hugh Bayless also attended the hearing as well as City Attorney John Morse.

Sunset Committee Meets Wednesday

The Sunset Committee will meet Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in the city hall. At this time the uses, finances and structures subcommittees will report to Chairman Frank Putnam on progress made during the past two weeks on plans to convert the Sunset School site and buildings into a cultural and community center after it is purchased from the Carmel Unified School District.

On September 15, the Sunset Committee will present recommendations on the conversion to the city council.

At the last meeting of the committee, a difference of opinion arose. This was whether or not the school site could be developed entirely as a cultural center and municipal community uses eliminated. Mr. Putnam promised committee members the city attorney would prepare a statement on this matter for Wednesday's meeting.

The finances subcommittee, at the same meeting, stated that one, possibly two, million dollars would be required for center development, and financial aid from outside Carmel should be sought.

This subcommittee met again last night to discuss further possibilities for financing the center with outside aid.

The structures subcommittee will meet again tomorrow afternoon at Normandy Inn, 2:30 p.m.

The uses subcommittee will convene at 7 p.m. Wednesday prior to the general committee meeting.

All committee and subcommit-

CHILDREN'S READING CLUB

The summer reading club of the Carmel library will have a final wind-up meeting on August 22 at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. On this day awards will be given to the four members who read and reported upon the most books during the summer program. Mrs. Dorothy Colvin, children's librarian, will tell stories to the group. All members are urged to be present in the Children's Room for this important meeting.

STUART HIGHLANDERS COMING AUGUST 23

There'll be a parade up Ocean Avenue, and down again, on August 23, led by the Stuart Highlanders Bagpipe Band here to give a free performance for the fourth year at the Forest Theater.

The city council has given the killed Scots permission to be, once again for one afternoon, the Pied Pipers of Carmel. Each year as they proceed from Monte Verde Street up Ocean to the open air theater, and back again after the concert, hundreds of people fall in behind them and march to the skirl of pipes and the beat of drums.

And don't think the local dogs miss the opportunity to get in on the city's celebration!

tee meetings are open to the public.

Mr. Putnam urges citizens to express their desires for the center at the meetings of the various subcommittees or at the general committee meeting, or by writing to him or Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher, (USN Ret.), Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels or Ted Fehring, chairmen, respectively, of the structures, finances and uses subcommittees.

Mr. Hambidge

Graeme D. Hambidge, a resident of Carmel for the past four years, died on Saturday morning, in his home on Mission street, following a brief illness.

Mr. Hambidge was born in New York City, January 24, 1906. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. For the past four years he has served as treasurer of the Monterey Peninsula Television Company.

Mr. Hambidge is survived by his wife, Lorene, a sister, Mrs. Ruth Hambidge Camp of Huntington, Long Island, New York, and a brother, Gove Hambidge of Kensington, Maryland.

City Council Sets Tax Rate Up 11 1/2 Cents

(Continued From Page One) following the council meeting, stated that the council had done a magnificent job in managing to restore to the general fund time deposit reserve, at no tax increase, $8,000 borrowed from it last year. This money was replaced from remaining surplus general funds at the end of the fiscal year in June. He added that the $20,000 allocated to the capital outlay reserve fund for 1964-65 represents "hard cash."

The four percent "cost of living" raise paid to all city employees except the city clerk, represents approximately 14 cents of the new tax rate. City Clerk Hugh Bayless observed this morning. In view of this the 11 1/2 cent tax hike this year is remarkable, he thought.

All city departments will receive something from the $1.06 tax.

The fire station will have new metal doors, cost installed $1,600, to replace warped wooden doors hanging precariously from their hinges, also a new stove and refrigerator. The police department will have a new car and another police officer. The public works department will get an asphalt spreader.

New furniture to replace out-worn items will be provided for the offices of the building inspector and director of planning. The city clerk's office will get an electric typewriter, desk, table and storage cabinet. New microphones for city councilmen will mean citizens will be able to hear them all over the council chambers. Two rows of comfortable chairs will be provided in the chambers for council audiences. Department heads will sit at new tables. The old tables will be used by the press, now seated behind strips of plywood.

City Clerk Hugh Bayless will receive $25 a month for serving as secretary to boards and commissions.

Lastly, the sum of $575,000 to purchase Sunset School had legally to be included in the budget but funds for this do not come from property taxes. With this removed, the budget figure stands at $688,122 for 1964-65. Expended last year to run the city was $524,373.

rated on Tuesday morning, in Carmel Mission Basilica, followed by burial with military honors on Tuesday afternoon in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Hazel Gladys Bell

Mrs. Hazel Gladys Bell, a resident of Carmel for the past three years, and the mother of Robert A. Bell of Carmel, died on Monday evening following a brief illness.

Mrs. Bell, a native of Menlo Park, was 71 years old.

In addition to her husband, Dr. Dickson G. Bell, and son, Mrs. Bell is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Smith of La Honda and Mrs. Esther Cokely of Fresno; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A son, John D. Bell was killed in action in World War II.

A service of prayers for the departed was held last evening at the Mission Mortuary, with a service of blessing held this morning. Entombment will be in the Holy Cross Cemetery in San Francisco.
